

Pantry Stock Up

Saskatoon & Area

August 8 & 9, 2026

Welcome to the ultimate Stock the Pantry itinerary, where we're trading standard grocery aisles for the vibrant fields and local producers in and around Saskatoon! Between the parallels that outline Saskatchewan's borders lie some of Canada's most productive farmlands, turning this region into a literal goldmine for high-quality, homegrown ingredients. If you've ever wanted to connect with the passionate producers who grow your food and see how the magic happens before it hits the shelves, you're in the right place.

1hr East of Saskatoon

Golden Eden Produce

Nestled on an original prairie homestead, Golden Eden Produce is a family-run oasis that traded wheat and canola fields for a thriving, two-thirds-of-an-acre greenhouse. The greenhouse grows crisp cucumbers, juicy tomatoes, and sweet or spicy peppers—all non-GMO, chemical-free, and proudly local.

OPEN Saturday 10 AM - 5 PM, Sunday 12 PM - 4 PM

What they grow: tomatoes, cucumbers, peppers
